One of my goals for 2022 was to broaden the network of talented professionals we work with, while still delivering a quality and consistent product to our readers. And I can proudly say we successfully accomplished that goal! What a year!

RHK Magazine was blessed to be able to publish 23 consecutive issues in 2022, bringing our total publication count to 259! One of the highlights of our publications last year were special edition issues which were devoted entirely to a specific model or photographer, a perfect way to highlight their individual work!

We also made it our goal to expand our content to include in-depth interviews, which allows our readers to get a more detailed look into each model's life. Our readers can expect to see more of the hottest content and photos available ... as we continue our dedication to retain current readers, while also seeking to attract new audiences!

Our 2023 publication schedule kicks off in June with first-time cover model Lacie Chiffon, with all-new topless photos by Vito Darius Calloway. Vito is one of our longtime VIP Photographers, and his latest photos are some of his hottest yet!

While there was a brief pause in publication between December and May, we can gladly say the break allowed us to focus on expansion and renovation of our corporate headquarters in Virginia (USA). Exciting times!

I try to say this often, because I am so sincere when I say it ... I am so grateful for the opportunity to do what I love every day, as I continue to build the RHK brand! I am grateful for each and every model, photographer, and business professional I've had the pleasure to work with! I am grateful for each and every reader and subscriber!

RHK: Monica, it's a pleasure to have you here for this exclusive interview!

Monica: Hi, I'm Monica. I am 34 years old, and I am a mother to a 4-year-old little girl. I was born in Toronto, Ontario but my Dad is from the north island of New Zealand. I grew up in a small-town way up north, but have found my way back towards Toronto for more opportunities.

RHK: How long have you been modeling?

Monica: I started modelling last December 2022 without any experience and got this opportunity and instantly fell in love it.

RHK: How would you describe your modeling style?

Monica: I love to learn. I love trying new things and taking risks. I really listen and try to study from Rey and what I've learned from Rey, facial expressions is more powerful than a pose. Rey has no theme or style ... I work side by side to learn from him, which means, I have no style and I can't describe it. It all depends where we are on this world since this world is Rey's canvas of choice. Rey doesn't believe working in a studio but believes true beauty is what's all around us.

RHK: What is your most memorable moment as a model?

Monica: I would definitely have to say travelling to Cuba and doing a bikini shoot! When I was asked by Rey to join him for this adventure. It almost sounded too good to be true! That trip helped me seeing that this really is possible. I also got to meet amazing people while Rey and I were in Cayo Coco.

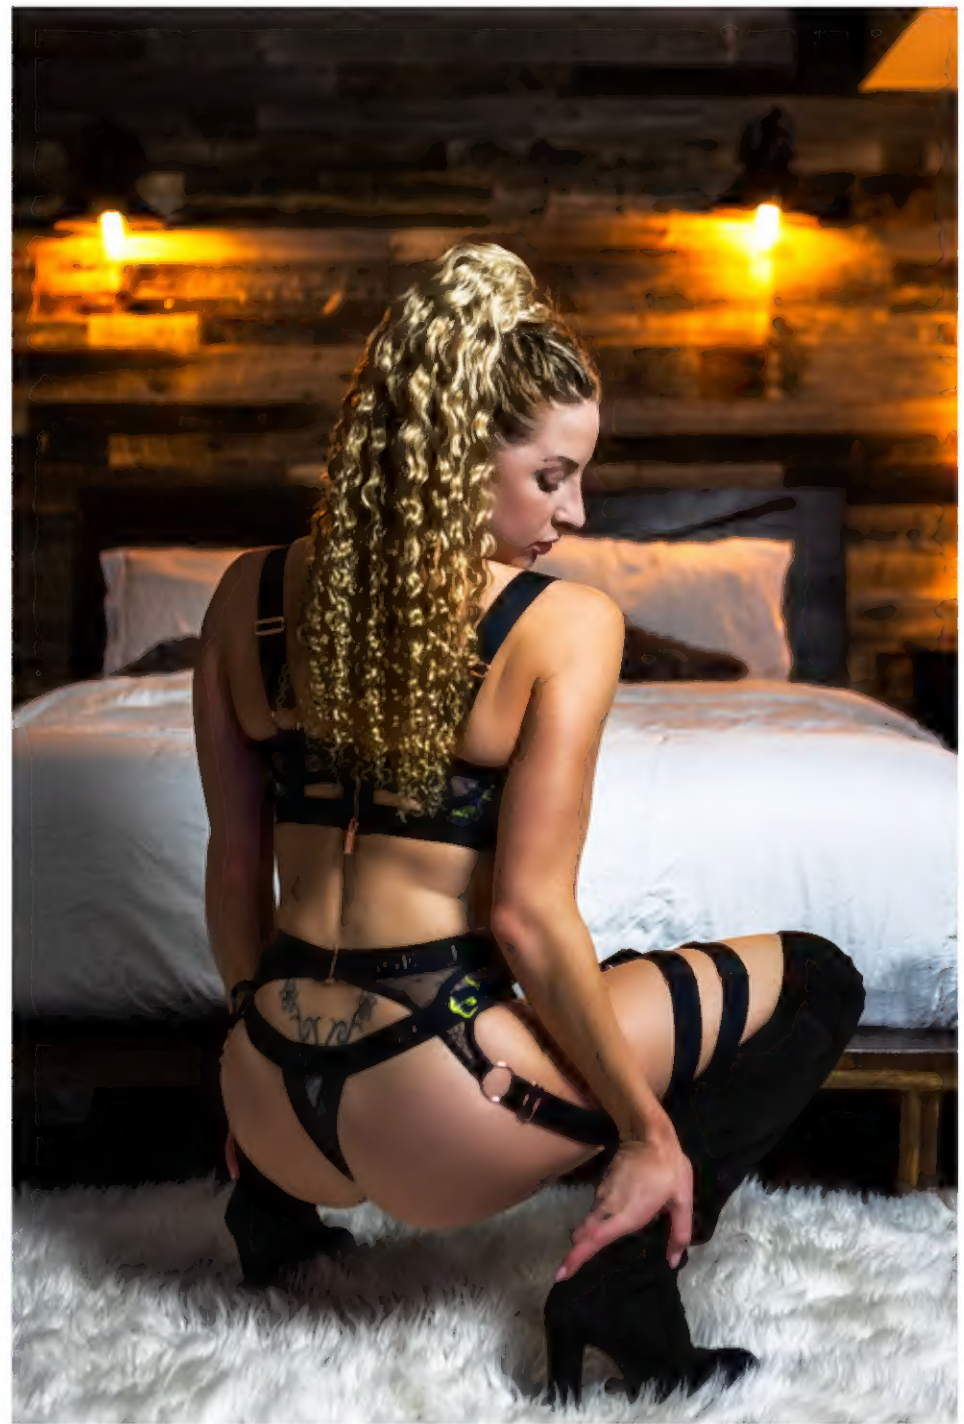

RHK: What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term?

Monica: My goal is to travel more and meet more people within the modelling world. I would like to become more well known in the industry with Rey's help.

RHK: What is your sexiest feature?

Monica: I think my eyes. People always tell me my eyes are unique and can change colours from bright blue to green/hazel.

Hi I'm Cheryl, I'm a former Miss Asia Canada Pageant many years ago. I enjoy modeling because of my favorite actress Angelina Jolie, she inspired me to step up my game. I decided to find a partner who is talented to capture my beautiful appearance and to continue on modeling.

How long have you been modeling? I been modelling for 7 years.

Who or what inspired you to start modeling? My favorite actress, Angelina Jolie.

How would you describe your modeling style? I don't really have a modeling style, I prefer Rey to guide me and place me where ever he wants.

What is your most memorable moment as a model? My most memorable moment is being able to connect with a lot of people build my self confidence.

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term? Able to influence others in short-terms of fashion and to promote and advertise big brands in long-terms, hopefully my own brand name.

What is your sexiest feature?
My legs.

Don't Let Your Looks Blow Your Interview

The perfect resume means nothing if you can't sell yourself at a job interview. And most interviewers form an opinion before you shake their hand — potential employers really do judge books by their covers.

So, how can you dress to get your foot in the door?

The most important element when dressing for a job interview is to evaluate your setting. Different offices enforce different dress codes -- an advertising agency, for example, might allow a little more personality than a government office. If the employer has an HR department, ask someone there about the company dress code. When in doubt, dress conservatively.

While you don't always need to wear a suit, keep in mind that you should dress for a position two levels higher than the one for which you are interviewing. If that means wearing a suit, choose a well-fitted, neatly-pressed suit in a dark, neutral color other than solid black.

Even if you opt for a more business-casual look, wear a collared shirt and a jacket. Make sure that all clothes fit well, are clean, and do not have loose threads or wrinkles.

And, although often overlooked, remember it's what is inside that counts. While your interviewer certainly shouldn't see them, it is important to choose the right kind of underwear. According to a recent Calvin Klein Underwear survey that polled 600 men and 400 women (available at survey.com), approximately 70 percent of those polled admit their undergarments are an extension of their personality. In addition, 80 percent say a good pair makes them feel more confident.

"Whether you are wearing a crisp white shirt with slacks or a tailored suit, it's important to set your foundation with a stylish and comfortable set of underwear."

- Jeannie Mai, celebrity stylist, host of Style Network's "How Do I Look" and "Extra" correspondent.

"Consider Calvin Klein's Classic Two Pack Boxer Briefs (www.cku.com). They are 100 percent cotton with a traditional fit, and are sexy, yet functional, with the signature logo waistband. Available in black and white, they can lend added confidence for your interview."

To add the final touches to your dressed-to-impress style, polish your shoes to demonstrate attention to detail. Cleanly groom your hair, and you'll show any prospective employer that you mean business!
